BY-LAWS

I.

NAME AND OBJECTS.

1. The name of said corporation shall be The Athletic Club of Columbus Company.

2. Said corporation is formed for the purpose of providing means of entertainment, amusement, refreshment and athletic and other recreation and instruction for its members, and of purchasing, leasing and otherwise acquiring and owning such real and personal property, appurtenances, and improvements as shall or may be necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of the above purposes.

II.

OFFICERS.

1. The officers of the Club shall be a President, First Vice President, Second Vice Presidnet, Third Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. They shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after each annual election and shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The President and Vice Presidents shall be members of the Board of Directors.

III.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

1. The President shall preside at all the meetings of the Club. He shall, with the Secretary, sign all certificates of stock, all written contracts and obligations of the Club, except checks, and in general perform all of the duties incident to the office.

2. It shall be the duty of the First Vice President to perform all of the duties of the President, in case of his absence or disability.

3. It shall be the duty of the Second Vice President to perform all of the duties of the President and of the First Vice President, in case of their absence or diasbility.

4. It shall be the duty of the Third Vice President to perform all of the duties of the President, First Vice President and Second Vice President, in case of their absence or disability.

5. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors and the various Committees. He shall notify the members of their election, issue notices of all meetings of the Club, and shall keep the records and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. The records of the Secretary shall at all times be open to inspection by any member of the Club.

6. The Treasurer shall be charged with the collection and custody of the funds of the Club, and shall disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Directors. He shall keep the accounts in books belonging to the Club, and not later than ten days preceding the annual meeting, shall present to the Board of Directors a full report of the year's business. The fiscal year of the Club shall end on the 31st day of December.

7. The funds of the Club shall be kept in such depository or depositories as the Board of Directors may select. The books of the Treasurer shall at all times be open to the inspection of any member of the Board of Directors and he may be removed by the Board of Directors at any time for refusal to exhibit them, or for any misconduct in the affairs of his office. He shall give bond in such amount as the Board may designate.

8. The Board of Directors may authorize the Secretary and Treasurer to employ, at the expense of the Club, such assistance in the keeping of the records and the preparation of their accounts and reports, as it shall think proper.

9. The officers shall have such further powers and duties as may be prescribed by the regulations or by the Board of Directors.

IV.

DIRECTORS.

1. The Board of Directors shall consist of fifteen (15) stockholders, five of whom shall be elected at each annual election of the Club, to hold office for three years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

2. The Directors shall have general charge of the affairs and finances and property of the Club, to which they shall report at the annual meetings.

3. The Directors shall be empowered to fill vacancies in any committee or in their own body by the appointment of a member to serve until the next annual election.

4. The Directors shall hold regular monthly meetings at such time and place as they may determine. Special meetings may be called by the President or Secretary upon notice to each Director of such meeting. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum at all meetings.

5. Any member of the Board of Directors or of any committee who shall be absent from three consecutive meetings of said Board or Committee, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do, or shall present at the next meeting of the Board of Directors an excuse for his absence satisfactory to the majority of the Board present, shall be deemed to have resigned as a member of said Board or Committee and cease to be a member thereof.

V.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1. The Executive Committee, of which the President shall be ex-officio Chairman, shall be composed of the President and four other Directors, elected by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after the annual election.

2. The Executive Committee, in the interim between the meetings of the Board of Directors, shall exercise all the powers of that body, in accordance with the general policy of the Club and the instructions of the Board of Directors.

3. Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held on the call of the President or any two members of the committee. All members of the committee shall be notified of its meetings, and a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum. The Executive Committee shall keep a record of its meetings and transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of any of the Directors.

VI.

ADMISSION COMMITTEE.

1. The Admission Committee shall consist of a chairman and four other resident members, appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after each annual election, for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

2. The Admission Committee shall hold meetings upon the call of the chairman, and shall keep minutes of its proceedings.

3. The Admission Committee shall receive, consider, and treat as confidential, all communications with reference to person proposed for membership. All written communications concerning candidates, except those of the two proposers, shall be destroyed as soon as final action is taken regarding a candidate.

4. No member of the Admission Committee shall propose or second the name of a candidate.

5. The action of the Admission Committee shall be final, unless overruled or modified by a two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors, within thirty days after the report of the committee as to any applicant, in which case the action of the Board of Directors shall be final. (Art. XV, Sec. 3.)

VII.

HOUSE COMMITTEE.

The House Committee shall consist of a Chairman who shall be a member of the Board of Directors and four other resident members appointed by the Board of Directors. Beginning in the year 1922, at their first meeting after the Annual Election, the Board shall appoint a Chairman and two resident members to serve for one year and two resident members to serve for two years, until their successors are appointed, and each year thereafter, at the first meeting after the Annual Meeting, the Board shall appoint a Chairman to serve for one year and two resident members to serve for two years, and until their successors are appointed. (As amended Feb. 14, 1922.)

2. The House Committee shall have charge of the Club House and premises; shall be responsible for the employment and discharge of the manager and other employes who shall serve under its direction. It shall make and authorize all necessary purchases, audit bills, regulate the prices of articles sold in the Club House; shall receive, consider and adjust complaints; and shall have general supervision over the internal economy and regulation of the Club House premises and the personal property pertaining thereto.

3. The House Committee shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to make rules and regulations governing the use of the Club and its property, and shall perform such other duties as may properly come within its province, subject to the direction and approval of the Board of Directors.

4. The House Committee, through its chairman, shall make such reports to the Board of Directors as may be required.

5. The House Committee shall elect one of its members Secretary, who shall keep written minutes of its proceedings in a minute book provided for that purpose, which minutes shall always be available for inspection and submission to the Directors of the Club. (Section added Feb. 14, 1922.)

VIII.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.

1. The Entertainment Committee shall consist of a chairman and four other resident members, appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after each annual election, for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

2. The Entertianment Committee shall arrange for such social, literary and other entertainments as in its opinion will best promote the interests and purposes of the Club, subject to the direction and approval of the Board of Directors.

3. The Entertainment Committee, through its chairman, shall make such reports to the Board of Directors as may be required.

IX.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE.

1. The Athletic Committee shall consist of a chairman and four other resident members appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after each annual election, for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

2. The Athletic Committee shall have charge of the athletic departments and activities of the Club, subject to the direction and approval of the Board of Directors.

3. The Athletic Committee, through its Chairman, shall make such reports to the Board of Directors as may be required.

X.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

1. The Finance Committee shall consist of a Chairman and four other resident members appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after each annual election, for one year, or until their successors are appointed. The President and Treasurer of the Club shall be ex-officio member of this Committee.

2. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to supervise and inspect the finances of the Club and to report their recommendations concerning the same as called for by the Board of Directors. The Finance Committee shall hold meetings upon the call of the Chairman and shall keep minutes of its proceedings.

XI.

OTHER COMMITTEES.

1. Other committees may be appointed from time to time by the Board of Directors in their discretion.

XII.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETINGS.

1. The regular annual meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday of February each year.

2. Fifty or more stockholders present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting.

3. Hours for meetings shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, and notices of the time and place of meetings shall be mailed to each member by the Secretary at least five days prior to the date of such meeting.

4. The order of business at annual meetings shall be as follows:

Reading Minutes.
Communications.
Report of Officers.
Reports of Standing Committees.
Reports of Special Committees.
Unfinished Business.
New Business.
Elections.
Adjournment.

5. Special meetings may be called by the President upon the written request of fifty stockholders, and giving at least seven days' notice to all stockholders.

6. At special meetings no business shall be transacted except that specified in the call and notice of the meeting.

XIII.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

1. The annual election of Directors shall be held not less than fifteen days after the regular annual meeting of the Club or at such time as may be determined at the regular annual meeting.

2. At the regular annual meeting of the Club each year, there shall be elected by ballot a Nominating Committee of seven members, no one of whom shall be a Director or a candidate for election as a Director, to nominate candidates for all offices to be filled at the annual election.

3. The Nominating Committee shall choose its own Chairman, and shall present a report to the Secretary not less than ten days before the annual election, placing in nomination the names of two candidates for each office to be filled. This report shall be immediately posted by the Secretary on the bulletin board of the Club.

4. At the written request of fifty stockholders, the name of any other candidate for any office shall be placed in nomination and shall be immediately posted with the names of the other candidates, together with the names of the stockholders, at whose request the nomination is made, provided said written request is placed in the hands of a member of the Board of Directors not less than seven days before the annual election.

5. The Secretary shall mail to each resident member of the Club, not less than six days before the date of each annual election, a notice which shall announce the names of all candidates nominated for election as above provided.

6. After the Nominating Committee is elected at the regular annual meeting, the President shall appoint and announce a committee of five judges, no one of whom shall be a member of the Board of Directors, or of the Nominating Committee, or a candidate for election as a Director, to have charge of the election. Any vacancy in the committee shall be filled by the President.

7. This Committee shall serve from the opening of the polls until the result of the election has been ascertained and shall cause to be issued to each Director elected a certificate of his election, bearing the signature of the Committee of Judges.

8. On the date of the annual election of directors the polls shall be open from 11:00 A. M. until 6:00 P. M. All voting shall be by ballot and in person. Voting by proxy shall not be allowed. A plurality of the votes cast shall constitute an election. Members may cast but one vote for each candidate to be elected.

9. In the event of a tie vote, the Committee of Judges shall cast lots and consider as elected the person or persons to whom the election falls.

10. In case nominations of candidates for unexpired terms are necessary, the five candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected to serve for the regular term of three years, the candidates receiving in order the next higher number of votes respectively shall be elected to serve the next longer unexpired terms.

XIV.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. There shall be six classes of members:

Resident.
Non-resident.
Corporation.
Perpetual.
Honorary.
Special.

2. The maximum number of members in each of the above classes shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, but the number of resident members shall not exceed 1500, and the number of perpetual memberships shall not exceed fifty.

RESIDENT MEMBERS.

3. Any gentlemen of lawful age residing in Franklin County, Ohio, may become a resident member upon election as hereinafter provided, and upon qualification by the payment of an admission fee of $250.00, ($50.00 of which shall apply on one share of common stock) and upon payment of the unexpired portion of the current quarterly dues. Effective April 1st, 1920, no more resident members shall be elected except to fill any vacancies caused by death, resignation or expulsion, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS.

4. Any gentleman of lawful age, residing beyond the limits of Franklin County, Ohio, may become a non-resident member, upon election, as hereinafter provided, and upon qualification by the payment of an admission fee of fifty dollars ($50.00), payable as called for by the Board of Directors, and upon the payment of the unexpired portion of the current quarterly dues.

PERPETUAL MEMBERS.

5. Any resident member of the Club may become a perpetual member upon election by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors and upon qualification by the purchase from the Club of a Certificate of Perpetual Membership of the par value of one thousand dollars ($1,000), payable as called for by the Board of Directors, or by the transfer to himself of such a certificate, which certificate shall set forth the following conditions governing such membership:

(a) Perpetual members shall have all the rights and privileges of resident members and shall be subject to suspension, expulsion and all other liabilities and penalties of resident members except that they shall be forever exempt from payment of annual dues.

(b) In the event of the death of the person to whom such certificate is issued, the Club will purchase such certificate from his legal representative and pay therefor the sum of $1,000.00, provided such representative shall within one year from the death of said member elect to accept said sum therefor.

(c) Said certificate of membership will be transferred upon the written request of the legal owner or holder thereof under the following conditions, to-wit:

(d) In case of a bona fide gift or bequest of such certificate by the person to whom issued, it will be transferred to the beneficiary of said gift or bequest, provided such beneficiary is a resident member of the Club and is elected a perpetual member.

(e) In all other cases such certificate will be transferred to any resident member of the Club who shall have been elected a perpetual member, provided that the legal owner or holder thereof shall first offer it in writing to the Club, through its Board of Directors, at the sum he has been offered and is willing to accept therefor and said Board does not accept said offer within thirty days after its receipt.

(f) The Club shall reserve the right to repurchase and cancel any certificate of perpetual membership at any time after thirty days' notice to the legal holder thereof, upon the payment of the sum of $1,000.00; provided, however, that if a bona fide offer of more than $1,000.00 shall be made for the same during said thirty days by a resident member of the Club acceptable to the Board of Directors as a perpetual member, the Club shall pay the sum thus offered in order to complete the purchase.

(g) Upon the transfer or cancellation of any certificate of perpetual membership, the person to whom it is issued shall, without action, become a resident member of the Club and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and subject to all liabilities and penalties as such.

SPECIAL MEMBERS.

6. Clergymen of the City of Columbus may become special members upon election, as hereinafter provided, upon the same terms as non-resident members, except that they shall not be required to pay an admission fee.

7. Commissioned officers of the Army and Navy of the United States may become special members upon election as hereinafter provided upon the same terms as a resident member, except that they shall not be required to pay an admission fee, nor have any voting or property rights in the Club.

8. Members of the Faculty of the Ohio State University and other endowed educational institutions located within Franklin County, Ohio, and other teachers therein whose principal occupation is that of teaching may become special members upon election, as hereinafter provided, upon the same terms as resident members, except that they need not be required to pay an admission nor have any voting or property rights in the Club.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

9. Any gentleman may be elected an honorary member upon unanimous election by the Board of Directors or by a majority vote of the stockholders present at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders.

CORPORATION MEMBERS.

10. A firm, corporation, or other organization may, upon the payment of an admission fee of three hundred dollars ($300.00) (net to the Club), purchase a CORPORATION MEMBERSHIP, for one representative, whose name shall be proposed by the owner and who shall be subject to all the rules and regulations of the Club, but neither the owner of such corporation membership, nor the representative when elected shall have the rights other than those of a non-resident member.

The owner of a corporation membership shall pay the dues of a resident member for its representative.

In case of the death, resignation, or expulsion of the representatives of an owner of a corporation membership, the owner may propose the name of another representative which shall be handled as a new application and upon the election of a new representative, the owner shall pay a transfer fee of $10.00, and the ownership of a corporation membership shall be forfeited if no satisfactory representative be appointed during any period of one year.

The owner of a corporation membership may purchase other corporation memberships upon the same terms and conditions, and shall guarantee the payment of any indebtedness of its representative.

TEMPORARY MEMBERS.

11. Any gentlemen temporarily located in Franklin County, Ohio, may become a temporary member for a period not to exceed three months, by making application as required of other members by election by the Admission Committee, and on the payment of fee of $50.00 which shall accompany his application, and one-half of which shall be applied to his credit if he becomes a member in any other classification upon the expiration of his term of temporary membership. He will not be subject to payment of dues. This privilege shall not be renewed.

12. Any elective or appointive State officeholder who shall be located in Franklin County, Ohio, may become a temporary member for the period of his term of office on election by the Admission Committee and on the payment of an admission fee of $50.00, which shall accompany his application and which shall be applied to his credit if he becomes a member under any other classification upon the expiration of his term of office. He shall be subject to the payment of resident dues.

RIGHTS OF MEMBERS.

13. All members shall be subject to the regulations and rules of the Club. Non-resident, honorary, special or temporary members shall have the same rights and privileges as resident members, except that they shall not be eligible to any office nor have a right to vote at any meeting of the Club, and shall have no right, title or interest in the property or assets of the Club on account of their membership. Special members shall also be subject to such further limitations as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

14. Resident members intending to be absent from the State of Ohio for a period of not less than one year, or longer, upon written application to the Board of Directors, may be placed on the non-resident list and thereupon be subject to non-resident dues for the period of such absence. Their return to Ohio shall re-instate them as resident members.

15. Members resigning while in good standing shall have the option of applying for re-instatement for a period of one year from the date of resignation upon written application to, and approval of, the Admissions Committee, and the payment of back dues and admission fee with a credit allowance for Common Stock originally purchased.

XV.

ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP.

1. Candidates for admission to membership must be proposed by two members of the Club, and must sign the Club application form, which shall be referred to the Admission Committee.

2. Members proposing a candidate shall furnish the Admission Committee with full information in writing regarding the qualifications of the candidate.

3. When an application for membership is referred to the Admission Committee, as herein provided, the Secretary shall immediately post the name of the applicant, together with the address, occupation, the names of the proposers and the date of the application, on the Bulletin Board of the Club, and keep the same posted for at least ten (10) days. It shall also investigate the eligibility of each candidate, and make a careful examination of his qualifications, and at the expiration of said ten days, the Committee shall act upon the name of each candidate separately, and shall forthwith report its action as to each applicant to the Board of Directors, four favorable votes being necessary for the recommendation of a candidate.

4. A candidate who has failed of election shall not again be considered as a candidate within a period of one year.

5. If a candidate elected to membership fails to qualify within thirty days after notice of his election shall have been sent him by the Secretary, his election may be declared void by the Board of Directors. No person may become the owner of a share of the common stock of the Club, or have any right, title or interest in or to the property of the Club on account thereof, who shall not have been previously elected to resident membership.

6. When a non-resident member shall become a resident of Franklin County, he shall thereupon cease to be a non-resident member, but will, upon application, be transferred to resident membership, to fill the first vacancy occurring in the resident membership list, and when qualifying as a resident member, shall be given credit for the amount of the admission fee paid by him as a non-resident member.

7. All resignations shall be made in writing to the Secretary, and no member shall be considered as having resigned until he shall have paid all of his indebtedness to the Club and given notice of his resignation as aforesaid.

8. When a resident member removes his residence from Franklin County, he may, upon application, be transferred to non-resident membership, without payment of any further admission fee, and the share of common stock issued in his name will then be disposed of as provided in the case of a resigning member. (Article XVIII.)

9. The widow of a resident Club member shall have the rights and privileges of a resident member for a period of twelve months after the death of her husband without being required to pay dues. If she becomes the onwer of her husband's stock, she shall be elibgile to membership during her widowhood without paying a membership fee, and shall not be required to pay dues until twelve months after the death of her husband. (Section added Feb. 14, 1922.)

XVI.

DUES.

1. The annual dues of the resident members shall be seventy-five dollars ($75.00), payable quarterly in advance, on the first days of January, April, July and October.

2. The annual dues of non-resident members shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00), payable quarterly in advance, on the first days of January, April, July and October.

3. No annual dues will be charged honorary members.

4. The annual dues of special members, except as provided in Art. XIV, Sec. 5, 6, 7, 8 and 11, shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

XVII.

INDEBTEDNESS.

1. The credit of members for supplies may be limited to fifty dollars ($50.00), within the discretion of the House Committee.

2. Bills for all indebtedness of members of the Club will be rendered on the first of the month in which payment is due.

3. If such indebtedness remains unpaid on the twentiteh of the month in which it is due, the Treasurer shall notify the delinquent member that his credit is suspended and his name posted on the Bulletin Board of the Club, and that he will not be allowed further credit from that date until the payment of the indebtedness and that if payment of this indebtedness is not made by the date of the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors the same shall be called to their attention and he may be expelled from membership. If so expelled his stock may be sold and transferred on the books of the Club for the satisfaction of his indebtedness in accordance with the provisions of Article 18.

4. The Board of Directors may suspend a member for such time as they may see fit or may expel him from membership for failure to pay any indebtedness to the Club as herein provided, and, in case of expulsion, the Board of Directors may cause the stock of the expelled member to be sold and transferred on the books of the Club for the satisfaction of his indebtedness in accordance with the provisions of Article XVIII.

XVIII.

STOCK.

1. The capital stock shall consist of 1,500 shares of common stock of the par value of $100 each, and 2,000 shares of preferred stock of the par value of $100 each. Owners of common stock only shall be entitled to vote at stockholders' meetings.

2. Each candidate elected to resident membership shall purchase from the Club one share of common stock before he shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club (Article XIV, Section 3; Article XV, Section 5). He shall pay $100 for said share of stock, of which $50 is in lieu of an admission fee. Each member shall be given a receipt in full for said payment and for said share of stock. All certificates of common stock shall remain in the custody of the Secretary in the office of the Club.

3. A share of common stock belonging to any member shall, upon his expulsion, death or resignation, be listed by the Secretary for sale to the next incoming resident member, subject to the provisions of these regulations.

4. When necessary for the Secretary to list stock for sale, the same shall be listed in the following order of precedence: First, stock of members expelled; second, stock of deceased members; third, stock of resigning members. Members who have been elected and are at the head of the waiting list shall have the first call on stock so listed for sale.

5. Preferred stock shall be entitled to dividends as earned at the rate of six per cent per annum, but no dividends will be paid on fractional portions of a share. Such dividends will be paid quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, following the date on which the stock certificate is issued.

6. All or any part of the issue of preferred stock may be redeemed at par on January 1, 1920, or any subsequent dividend day. If a portion only is redeemed, the shares to be redeemed shall be determined by lot.

7. The Club shall have first lien on all shares of common stock, to secure all indebtedness of the stockholders to the Club. This lien may be enforced after sixty days from the date on which the indebtedness becomes due, by the sale of such stock, registered in the name of the debtor upon the books of the Club. From the proceeds of the sale of any share of common stock for any cause whatsoever, the Club shall retain: First, the sum of $50, being the amount paid in lieu of an admission fee, provided in Article XIV, Section 3, second, an amount sufficient to satisfy any further indebtedness of the member to the Club. (Article XVII, Section 4.) The balance of said proceeds shall be paid to said member or to his legal representative.

8. Each certificate of stock shall contain a statement that it is subject to the rules and regulations of the Club. Each certificate of common stock shall contain a further statement that it is subject to first lien for the amount paid in lieu of an admission fee and all other indebtedness of the stockholder to the Club, and that said certificate shall remain in the custody of the Secretary of the Club subject to the provisions of Articles XIV, XV, XVII, and XVIII of these regulations.

9. Transfers of all stock, to be valid, must be registered upon the books of the Club.

XIX.

VISITORS.

1. See House Rule 9.

2. The Board of Directors shall have the power in their discretion on the occasion of Club entertainments, and at other times, to authorize admittance to the Club of residents of Franklin County, when accompanied by a member of the Club.

XX.

DISCIPLINE.

If the conduct of a member shall appear to the Directors to be disorderly, ungentlemanly, in violation of the rules or prejudicial to the interests or character of the Club, and if the nature of the offense in the opinion of two-thirds of the Board of Directors requires it, they may suspend him from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding six months, or may expel him. No member or guest shall be suspended or expelled from the Club for misconduct until he shall have been furnished an opportunity to be heard before the Board of Directors in his own defense. A motion to reconsider the expulsion of a member may be made at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, after written notice to all of the Directors. Any member so expelled shall be ineligible for election or admittance into the Club House or grounds until such ineligibility is removed by a majority vote of a Directors' meeting.

XXI.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to these regulations may be made at any meeting of the Club, annual or special, by a two-thirds vote of those present; provided, that if it be the intention to propose any amendment at a special meeting of the Club, written notice, including a copy of the proposed amendment, shall be given to the members with the notice of such meeting.

XXII.

SEAL.

The seal of the Company shall be such as is prescribed by the laws of the State of Ohio.

XXIII.

CLUB COLORS AND EMBLEM.

1. The Colors of the Club shall be Pearl Gray and Yale Blue.

2. The Emblem of the Club shall consist of the letters A. C. C. arranged as follows:

The letters C. C. shall be placed below the letter A. and the three letters shall be so drawn as to form the outline of an equilateral triangle. To the sides of this triangle shall be affixed the outline of a pair of wings pointing upward, the whole surrounded by a circle.

XXIV.

CONSTRUCTION OF REGULATIONS.

1. Wherever the word "Club" is used in these regulations or in the By-Laws it shall mean The Athletic Club of Columbus Company whenever the construction of the sentence in which the word is used will permit.

2. The construction of these regulations shall rest with the Board of Directors.

3. The Board of Directors shall decide pro tempore, any questions which may arise in regard to matters not covered by these regulations.
